*The Welsh Wonder – The Mighty Bass-Baritone
Sir Bryn Terfel*

MUSICOLOGIST ERIKA REITSHAMER

Born in Wales with music in his heart, Bryn Terfel is one of the most charismatic and talented singers performing today. His roles range from Mozart to Wagner to Sweeney Todd, to Sportin' Life. Only a handful of singers can spin a musical yarn as deftly as Sir Bryn.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16 @ 2 PM
ZOOM & CH.918

A man in a dark jacket and patterned shirt holds a large Ukrainian flag (blue and yellow) in front of a stone building. The flag is waving in the wind. The man is looking towards the camera with a serious expression. The background is a large, multi-story stone building with many windows.

Crisis in Ukraine: Real Time Response

Carol Saivetz, expert on Russian politics & foreign policy, will join us in conversation addressing questions on the current situation, the historical roots of this conflict, and what this moment means for the Jewish community both there & here.

NB ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY COMMITTEE PRESENTS

Implementing Climate Solutions in a World of Political Strife & Social Media

HOLDEN THORN

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, SCIENCE FAMILY OF JOURNALS

The talk will address the barriers to achieving policy solutions to problems like climate change that lead to political polarization. Between the insidious features of social media algorithms and the naturally adversarial behavior of the political parties, consensus is almost impossible. Solutions need to account for these challenges rather than blaming them for a lack of progress.

MONDAY, MARCH 21 @ 2 PM, ZOOM & CH.918

SOFIA & THE SANDY RIDGE BOYS

TUESDAY, MARCH 22 @ 8:00PM
GREAT MEADOW HALL

Following in the footsteps of the masters, The Sandy Ridge Boys play traditional, straight-ahead bluegrass as well as tunes from early country music, along with interesting twists on some familiar old favorites.
