

The Smack Dabs!

TUESDAY, JULY 1 @ 7:30 PM, GMH

Delightful and timeless vintage pre-war swing, jazz, and blues of the 1930's – presented in sextet format by some of New England's finest musicians.

MARCUS INSTITUTE HEALTH SPEAKER SERIES:

Diet for Healthy Bones & Bodies

DR. SHIVANI SAHNI

Join Dr. Sahni for an engaging discussion on healthy aging! Discover the unique nutritional and health needs of older adults as Dr. Sahni explores how lifestyle and diet play a key role in maintaining strong bones and muscles with age. Learn practical strategies, evidence-based tips, and empowering tools to help older men and women embrace healthier eating habits for lifelong well-being.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 2 @ 2:00 PM, GMH

Summer Soundscapes

FRIDAY, JULY 4 @ 2PM, ASSISTED LIVING

Enjoy an afternoon of enchanting melodies as the New Hampshire Music Festival Trio presents elegant and expressive works by Handel, Debussy, Nino Rota, and Glière — perfect for a relaxing summer escape through timeless music.

New Black Eagles Jazz Band

SATURDAY, JULY 5 @ 1:30 PM, GMH

Come celebrate July 4th with the New Black Eagle Jazz Band as they lead you on an American-themed journey with their uplifting and soulful New Orleans Jazz. You'll be surprised by how many different parts of our country are given tribute with song. And, of course, you can hear some jazzy versions of classic patriotic songs.

A Beverly Sills Tribute, Part 3
MUSICOLOGIST DAVID COLLINS

Join Musicologist David Collins for a presentation on one of Beverly Sills most well known roles Massenet's Manon. Massenet's Manon was one of Sill's most successful roles. She sang the role of Manon in Boston with enthusiastic response before undertaking it with the New York City Opera.

This demanding role requires beautiful lyric singing as well as challenging coloratura arias - including the famous Gavotte "Obéissons quad lear voix appelle" in act 3. Sills' skilled acting adds to her strength in the duets and large ensembles.

MONDAY, JULY 7 @ 2:00 PM, ASSISTED LIVING

Tolerance & Forgiveness

CLIFFORD BACKMAN,
PROFESSOR OF HISTORY AT BU

Join Professor Clifford Backman as he explores how societies have redefined tolerance and forgiveness over the centuries — and what drives those changes. A timely reflection on shifting values, moral boundaries, and the forces that reshape them.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 9 @ 2:00 PM, GMH

FRIDAY CONCERT SERIES:

Reeds & Ivories

Join BMS' Russ Gershon (saxophone) and Brian Friedland (piano) for an afternoon of American Songbook classics! This jazz set is sure to leave you tapping toes and humming tunes
all day long!

FRIDAY, JULY 11 @ 2:00 PM
ASSISTED ROOM

Beethoven Sonata No. 9

ANGEL VALCHINOV, VIOLIN
AI-YING CHIU, PIANO

After a season tracing the soul of Beethoven, violinist Angel Valchinov and pianist Ai-Ying Chiu arrive at the summit—Sonata No. 9, “Kreutzer.”

Passionate, storm-swept, and blazing with brilliance, this final chapter promises a climactic close to their sonata cycle. Join us for a night where sparks fly and Beethoven roars—an ending worthy of the journey.

SATURDAY, JULY 12 @ 7:30 PM, GMH

Women in Jazz

Tuesday, July 15 @ 7:30 PM, GMH

Women in World Jazz is an award-winning, international ensemble that embraces diversity and the power of creation. This multi-media concert-lecture showcases the music of women composers, poets, and lyricists from around the world and celebrates history, equality and hope.

Opera-Lecture: Salome by Strauss
MUSICOLOGIST ERIKA REITSHAMER

Strauss's opera Salome is based on Oscar Wilde's 1884 play, drawn from a brief New Testament story. Set in first-century Galilee, it follows Salome, stepdaughter of Herod Antipas, who dances for the king and demands the head of the prophet Jokanaan (John the Baptist) as her reward. Her obsession leads to a shocking climax, where desire, power, and death collide.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23 @ 2-3:30 PM*, GMH
NOTE END TIME

Summertime and Sunshine

Thursday, July 24 @ 7:30 pm, GMH

Join singer and piano player Krisanthi with her band for great songs such as Summertime, The Summer Wind, In The Good Old Summertime, I'll Follow The Sun, You Are My Sunshine, You Are The Sunshine of My Life, House Of The Rising Sun, Summer Breeze and more!

Trio Ventures

Join pianist Hisako Hiratsuka, Cellist Simone Vitucci and violinist Sarita Uranovsky for a concert featuring Mozart's trio K 564, Frank Bridge's Miniatures, Handel's Trio sonata in G min and Arthur Foote's first piano trio.

SAT, JULY 26 @ 7:30 PM, GMH

NEWBRIDGE RESIDENTS PRESENT
Judge Judith Barzilay, US Court of International Trade

Judge Barzilay will discuss the US Court of International Trade, its history, jurisdiction, a few of her most interesting cases, briefly explain the recent case striking down the Trump tariffs, and, if time permits, recite a few amusing stories about her nomination/confirmation process.

MONDAY, JULY 28 @ 2 PM, GMH

The Swing Legacy Band

Tuesday, July 29 @ 7:30 pm, GMH

This unique, acclaimed septet, led by clarinetist John Clark and featuring vocalist Debby Larkin, presents the polish, heat, and energy of the great swing big-bands. It is essentially a little big band, with the repertoire concentrating on classic big-band swing, including many Duke Ellington and Count Basie numbers. They swing mightily!

Through Her Hands Ft. Neave Trio

Thursday, July 31 @ 7:30pm, GMH

This program highlights the artistry of three pioneering pianist-composers—Clara Schumann, Cécile Chaminade, and Dora Pejačević—whose chamber works reflect their distinct voices and eras. From Schumann's expressive clarity to Chaminade's lyrical grace and Pejačević's rich harmonies, these piano trios showcase generations of creativity, all centered around the piano.

In Perfect Harmony Ft. The Roebling Trio

Saturday, Aug. 2 @ 7:30pm, GMH

Join us for an evening of timeless masterworks by Beethoven and Mendelssohn. The program features Beethoven's majestic "Archduke" Trio, a cornerstone of the piano trio repertoire known for its grandeur and lyrical beauty, alongside Mendelssohn's passionate and energetic Piano Trio No. 1 in d minor. Together, these works showcase the expressive power and dynamic interplay of the piano trio at its finest.